JUDGMENT

The petitioner filed an application for regular permit which was rejected by the respondent against which the petitioner filed statutory appeal before the State Transport Appellate Tribunal. The Tribunal allowed the appeal and directed the respondent to grant regular permit in favour of the petitioner. Petitioner's complaint is that the respondent has not taken further steps, pursuant to Ext.P2 judgment of the Tribunal. Learned Government Pleader submits that the matter would be considered in the next meeting of the R.T.A. In the facts and circumstances of the case, I direct the respondent to consider the application of the petitioner, as per Ext.P2 judgment within one month from the date of receipt of a copy of this judgment. If the RTA cannot meet within that time, decision shall be taken by circulation of papers, if permissible under law.

S.SIRI JAGAN
Judge.
